Challenge cups, trophies, shields, etc., being the property of the Society are held by the winner for the remainder of that competition year only, and must be returned to the Society before 1st February of the following year. Trophies must be returned in a good, clean condition in adequate packaging. If a trophy is returned damaged, you will be charged for the repairs. Engraving of trophies and the cost is the responsibility of the winner.

14. CHAMPIONSHIPS & SCHOLARSHIPS: All Championships and Scholarships will be decided on most points. To qualify for marks for awards, competitors must compete in all classes specified. The decision of the Adjudicator shall be final in all cases. For sake of fairness, should you wish to be considered for a Scholarship/Championship you must enter all classes listed for the Scholarship/Championship AND the Scholarship/Championship itself, even if only one class is listed, unless otherwise stated. There is an extra entry fee of $5.00 per Scholarship or Championship in addition to the class fee.

15. PERFORMANCES:

(a) In duos, trios, quartets and groups, a competitor may perform twice in each class but only once with the same partner.

(b) Competitors may not compete in any class other than their age group except in duos, trios, quartets, or group items where they can only compete above their age group.

(c) Competitors in dance and vocal may not perform the same item in more than one class except in Restricted and Championship classes. Instrumentalist competitors may not play the same item in more than one class.

(d) Competitors entering the Variation Classes (Class 366a & 366b) must enter at least one other solo ballet class.

16. Costumes, choreography and music should be appropriate for the age of the competitor and suitable for a family audience.

17. PROTESTS: Any protest must be lodged, with the grounds upon which it is based, in writing, with the Secretary, together with the sum of $10.00. No protest will be accepted unless made directly at the completion of the class in question. The Executive reserves the right to interpret the rules and their decision is final. No correspondence will be entered into.
